Situation

Ewhurst is a charming village in the Surrey Hills, offering a tranquil rural setting with scenic countryside, walking trails, and a strong community. With a mix of period cottages and a rich history, including the 12th-century St. Peter and St. Paul Church, it provides a peaceful retreat for those seeking a countryside lifestyle. Nearby Cranleigh offers further services, while Guildford and Godalming are within easy reach for more extensive amenities and transport links. Ewhurst combines the best of peaceful village life with convenient access to larger towns, making it a highly sought-after location for both relaxation and practicality.

There are some fantastic schools in the area including Ewhurst Primary School, Duke of Kent in Ewhurst, St Catherine's in Bramley, Cranleigh School in Cranleigh, Charter House in Godalming, Cranmore in West Horsley, St Teresa's in Effingham, as well as The Royal Grammar School and Prep School, Guildford High School and Tormead all in Guildford.

Ewhurst offers an exceptional range of outdoor pursuits that blend seamlessly with its idyllic rural setting. Surrounded by rolling hills and ancient woodlands, the area is a haven for walking and hiking enthusiasts, with an abundance of scenic trails that invite exploration. Cycling is another popular activity, with quiet country lanes and stunning landscapes providing the perfect backdrop for leisurely rides or more invigorating routes.

The village boasts a selection of traditional pubs, including The Bulls Head Inn and The Parrot, are ideal spots to unwind after a day in the great outdoors. Ewhurst also attracts families, with the Sayers Croft Outdoor Learning Centre providing children the opportunity to immerse themselves in nature, learning about the environment and engaging in hands-on outdoor activities. Nearby Cranleigh offers a range of shops, cafés, and cultural events, ensuring residents have easy access to all essential amenities.

With its blend of rural charm, outdoor pursuits, and convenient access to local services, Ewhurst offers the perfect combination of tranquillity and convenience, making it an ideal location for those seeking a balanced and enriching lifestyle.

Losely Farm

Losely Farm is an exceptional family home, having been meticulously modernised and sympathetically refurbished by the current owners. Believed to date back to the 16th century, with later 18th-century additions, this Grade II Listed property exemplifies the highest standard of craftsmanship throughout.

The accommodation is both expansive and beautifully presented, spread over three floors. Highlights include a stunning drawing room with vaulted ceiling, a dining room with an impressive fireplace, and a cosy family room/ study. The kitchen is handmade in a Shaker style, with a central island and stone worktops. Beyond the kitchen, there is a dining area, as well as a seating area, which creates a sociable open-plan living space.

The generously proportioned and luxurious bedroom accommodation spans the first and second floors. The principal bedroom enjoys far-reaching views, two dressing rooms, and a beautifully appointed en suite bathroom. On the first floor are a further two double bedrooms and a family bathroom, whilst on the second floor, there is a further double bedroom with an en suite bathroom.

Planning permission

Planning permission (WA/2021/02848) and Listed Building Consent (WA/2021/02847) have been achieved for a significant barn style extension that will provide a further kitchen, dining area, lounge together with a scullery as well as additional bedroom accommodation with an en suite bathroom on the first floor.

Ancillary accommodation

Located adjacent to the main house, just beyond the back door, is a delightful two-bedroom cottage, offering a well-appointed bathroom and a generously sized kitchen/reception room.

Outbuildings

A number of traditional buildings have been expertly repurposed and sympathetically modernised, including a superb pool house/gymnasium, a granary offering potential as an office or similar space, and several stables.
