Situation

Ockley is a charming village located in the heart of Surrey, offering a peaceful rural setting surrounded by scenic countryside. Situated approximately 10 miles northeast of Guildford and 5 miles south of Dorking, the village enjoys a tranquil location with easy access to nearby towns. Steeped in history, Ockley is first recorded in the Domesday Book of 1086, where it is referred to as “Oclea,” believed to signify a place near an oak tree. The village is home to the historic Church of St. Margaret, dating back to the 12th century, and benefits from its picturesque surroundings of farmland and woodlands. With its relaxed pace of life and strong sense of community, Ockley is the perfect location for those seeking a rural retreat, yet within convenient reach of larger towns and transport links.

There is an excellent range of schools nearby including Leith Hill School in Holmbury St Mary, Farlington School in Horsham, Pennthrope Preparatory School in Rudgwick, Longacre School in Shamley Green, Duke of Kent in Ewhurst, St. Johns in Leatherhead, Cranleigh School in Cranleigh, Reigate Grammar in Reigate and Boxhill School in Mickleham.

Ockley offers a wealth of outdoor activities to enjoy in the surrounding area. The village itself is perfect for scenic countryside walks, with picturesque trails winding through woodlands and farmland, showcasing the beauty of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The highest point in southeast England, Leith Hill, offers exceptional views and excellent walking opportunities, while nearby Holmbury Hill and Hurtwood Forest provide further options for exploring the natural beauty of the area. For those with an interest in fine wine, Denbies Wine Estate, located in nearby Dorking, offers insightful tours and tastings, set amidst the stunning vineyard landscapes. Box Hill also provides some of the finest walking routes in the region, including the iconic Box Hill Hike, which rewards hikers with sweeping panoramic views. Guildford, with its historic charm, is only a short drive away, offering attractions such as Guildford Castle, the Guildford House Gallery, and delightful riverside strolls. For family-friendly outings, the Rural Life Centre in Tilford offers an immersive look at rural history, and Bocketts Farm Park in Leatherhead provides a hands-on farm experience. The nearby market town of Dorking is a haven for antiques, scenic walks, and cultural attractions. Local pubs such as The Scarlett Arms in Walliswood and The Parrot in Forest Green are both highly rated and just a short walk away. With a variety of activities ranging from hiking and cycling to wine tasting and cultural exploration, Ockley and its surrounding areas cater to a diverse range of interests.
