The Coach House

Situated within the Surrey Hills AONB, this characterful home is believed to date back to circa 1690 and has been thoughtfully extended to offer a flexible five-bedroom layout ideal for modern family life or multi-generational living. Retaining many original features such as exposed beams, chalk walls and slate floors, the property includes three reception rooms, a large kitchen with adjoining utility, and a separate scullery.

The Coach House features a spacious entrance hall, from which the sitting room, dining room, and kitchen are all accessed. The kitchen benefits from an abundance of natural light, creating a wonderful sense of space and enjoys views of the beautiful landscaped garden.

BEDROOM ACCOMMODATION

Garden and grounds

The gardens at The Coach House are a wonderful feature of the property, with a variety of mature plants, trees, and hedges providing complete privacy. The flat lawns are beautifully maintained and bordered by vibrant flower beds. Double doors from both the sitting room and office open onto the garden, while a decked area off of the sitting room offers an ideal space for entertaining. All the west-facing rooms which includes the upstairs bedrooms, kitchen, study, sitting room and office have views of the garden.

In the garden there's a summer house, a large greenhouse and raised beds throughout. The detached store room and workshop, the size of a double garage has potential for conversion to a studio or home office (subject to planning), and the site of former outbuildings may offer scope for further development.
