SITUATION

Coldharbour is a quintessentially charming village celebrated for its timeless rural character and exquisite rural setting. Nestled within the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, it offers an unparalleled environment for outdoor enthusiasts- whether for leisurely walks, exploration, or simply absorbing the stunning landscape.

This tranquil village embodies traditional countryside elegance, providing a peaceful sanctuary away from the hustle and bustle of nearby towns. The local property portfolio features an enchanting mix of period residences, characterful cottages, and picturesque farmhouses, each reflecting the area's distinguished architectural heritage and capturing the very spirit of rural living.

There are several excellent schools in the area, including The Duke of Kent in Ewhurst, St Johns School in Leatherhead, Charterhouse in Godalming, St Catherine's in Bramley, Cranleigh School in Cranleigh, Cranmore in West Horsley and St Teresa's in Effingham.

The surrounding countryside is rich with scenic walking routes, notably the iconic Leith Hill and Box Hill, both renowned for their expansive, panoramic views. Meandering country lanes attract cyclists from across the region, while the Surrey Hills Sculpture Trail offers a distinctive blend of contemporary art set against the natural landscape. Close by, Denbies Wine Estate- England's largest vineyard- invites visitors to enjoy guided tours and expertly curated tastings. The nearby National Trust property, Polesden Lacey, offers a glimpse into Edwardian elegance amidst beautifully landscaped gardens.

A short drive brings you to the charming market town of Dorking, celebrated for its boutique shopping, fine dining establishments, and vibrant cultural heritage. With esteemed golf courses such as Dorking Golf Club in close proximity, Coldharbour represents an exceptional location for those seeking a harmonious balance of countryside serenity, outdoor recreation, and refined local amenities.

MOSSES WOOD COTTAGE

A character-filled Grade II listed cottage in the heart of the Surrey Hills National Landscape, set in the pretty village of Coldharbour. Full of charm and period features, this semi-detached home offers stunning views and a wonderful sense of peace and privacy.

Inside, the farmhouse-style kitchen has timber beams, exposed brickwork, and a traditional AGA, blending old-world charm with everyday comfort. The main reception room is full of light, with vaulted ceilings, French doors to the garden, and lovely views. Flagstone floors link the kitchen and dining room, while a third reception offers flexible space – ideal as a study or snug. The cosy sitting room features a bread oven, Inglenook fireplace with wood burner, and original beams. A cloakroom completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, you'll find two spacious double bedrooms with vaulted ceilings and period details, plus a single bedroom with its own shower. The family bathroom is bright and welcoming with a white suite and wooden flooring.

GARDEN AND GROUNDS

Outside, the property sits in approximately three quarters of an acre, with mature gardens, climbing plants, and panoramic views – one of the highest points in the South East. A pretty courtyard patio connects to the house via the dining room and study – perfect for a quiet coffee or alfresco dining. There's also parking for several cars and a two-room outbuilding: one part a fully equipped utility/boot room with a shower, and the other a great space for bikes and garden tools.
