SITUATION

Albury Park Mansion is a prestigious residential development set within a Grade II* listed country house in the heart of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Steeped in history, the mansion was originally built in the 17th century and later remodelled by famed architect Augustus Pugin in the 19th century, featuring Gothic-style interiors and grand architectural flourishes. The estate spans over 150 acres of landscaped parkland designed by the 17th-century diarist and garden designer John Evelyn. Residents enjoy access to formal topiary gardens, private woodland walks, and serene countryside views, all within a secure, gated environment. The estates rich heritage includes hosting royal events and appearances in film.

There’s an excellent selection of schools in the area including Cranleigh School in Cranleigh, Duke of Kent in Peaslake, Moon Hall School in Holmbury St Mary, The Royal Grammar School and Guildford High School in Guildford, Charterhouse in Godalming and St Catherine’s in Bramley, to name just a few.

Albury offers a rare blend of idyllic rural living and excellent connectivity. Conveniently located near Guildford and Godalming, residents benefit from swift access to mainline rail services and a broad range of amenities.

The surrounding countryside invites exploration with scenic walking routes such as the Tillingbourne Trails and panoramic views from Newlands Corner and st Martha’s Hill- perfect for those who enjoy an active lifestyle.

Local attractions include the acclaimed Albury Vineyard and Silent Pool Distillery, both renowned for exceptional craftsmanship in tranquil settings. A short walk from Albury is the neighbouring village of Shere, celebrated for its unspoilt charm and period architecture.

Adding to the area’s appeal are several prestigious golf clubs within close proximity, including Guildford, Clandon, Cranleigh, Bramley and Effingham.
