Occupying an enviable position on one of Guildford’s premier residential roads, Breezes is a distinguished 1920s family home of notable character and scale, offering over 2,500 sq ft of beautifully arranged accommodation with far-reaching views over the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Approached via a private driveway and set well back from the road behind landscaped gardens, the property enjoys a discreet and tranquil setting moments from Newlands Corner and the North Downs. With direct access to some of Surrey's most picturesque countryside, the location is as compelling as the home itself.

Internally, Breezes offers a flexible and well-balanced configuration ideally suited to modern family life. Of particular note are the four generous reception rooms, each offering distinct appeal. The formal sitting room and welcoming family room both enjoy attractive fireplaces and generous proportions, while the elegant dining room flows seamlessly into the superb garden room — a striking space with vaulted skylight, dual-aspect glazing, and bifold doors opening to the terrace and gardens beyond.

The traditionally styled kitchen, with adjacent utility room, opens into the dining area where French doors provide a connection to the outdoors, perfect for summer entertaining. A cloakroom and WC complete the ground floor.

The fifth bedroom is currently arranged as a study, offering flexibility for home working or guest accommodation.

GARDEN AND GROUNDS

Externally, the gardens are a particular feature — wonderfully private and bordered by mature specimen trees. A generous paved terrace leads via steps to an expanse of level lawn, culminating in a charming brick-built summer house — an ideal setting for al fresco dining and peaceful enjoyment of this idyllic setting. There are also three garden stores providing ample storage.

The gravelled driveway offers off-street parking for several vehicles and leads to an integral garage.

The surrounding countryside — including The Chantries, St Martha's Hill and Newlands Corner — is widely regarded as among Surrey's most scenic.
