Guide Price £425,000

Freehold

Located in the heart of medieval Sandwich, lies this superb detached home. Offering an abundance of light and space throughout, this chain free residence is certainly not one to overlook.

Upon entrance to the property, you find yourselves immediately in the large and spacious reception room, which boasts enough space for a living and dining area. The property then flows through to a well appointed kitchen with integrated appliances. Towards the rear, you will find a convenient utility room as well as a downstairs WC.

The first floor of this home is comprised of two excellent sized bedrooms. The principal bedrooms feature a built in storage and a large dressing room, equipped with plenty of wardrobe space. You will find the second bedroom towards the front of the property which has pleasant views over the garden. Finally, this level is completed by a thoughtfully, three piece bathroom, complemented by additional storage cupboards.

Positioned in the heart of the historic Cinque Ports town of Sandwich, Upper Strand Street is conveniently close to local primary and secondary schools, all within walking distance. The idyllic town has fantastic amenities including medical facilities, shops, cafes, restaurants and much more. Residents of the town enjoy excellent transport links with regular bus routes, to neighbouring towns and villages and high speed train routes from Sandwich railway station to central London.
