A well presented, two bedroom end terrace cottage situated in this sought after small development by Millwood Designer Homes built approximately six years ago. The property has attractive weather board, barn style elevations and has accommodation arranged two floors, cloakroom, fitted kitchen and open planned lounge/dining room with double doors onto the garden. Stairs rise to the first floor where there are two double bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of which is ensuite. Outside, there is allocated parking. Side access to the rear garden, which is a lovely feature of the property having paved patio stepping onto lawns with flower and shrub borders around, all enjoying a southerly aspect. We highly recommend an early visit to fully appreciate this lovely cottage.

Ewhurst is a lovely, semi-rural village nestled at the base of the beautiful Surrey Hills just a few miles north east of Cranleigh. Its population of 2,500 have access to an array of amenities including a well-run general store, medieval church, recently updated pub, village club and a variety of independent retailers including a hairdresser, beauty shop and vet practice. The village has a play group, pre-school and infant school as well as a range of private and state schools in nearby villages. These include Duke of Kent School in Peaslake, Hurtwood House School, Cranleigh School and Glebelands High. It has a range of sports and social clubs with local playing fields and is generally a wonderful area for pursuing outdoor activities such as walking, horse riding and mountain biking. Nearby (just 4.5 miles) Ockley Train Station provides convenient access up to London Victoria. Other mainline stations can be found in Guildford, Dorking or Horsham.
