Description

An iconic self contained detached office building ideal for a company headquarters.

This landmark building within Wollaston was converted to offices approximately 20 years ago. It is Grade II Listed and described in the listing as dating from circa 1860 as the vicarage to the Church of St James. It appears to have been used as the Head Masters House for the church buildings which were at one time a school. At the time of conversion the property was fully refurbished and with lots of quality oak internal joinery and panelling to many of the principal rooms. It comprises reception office, board room and offices arranged over 3 floors together with its own car parking to the front and rear of the building.

Location

Prominently located on Bridgnorth Road close to the centre of the neighbourhood shopping village of Wollaston close to Stourbridge and on the Western edge of the West Midlands conurbation.
