SITUATION & DESCRIPTION:

The property lies in a favoured residential location on the south side of Stourbridge, in particular Greenroyde is a short cul-de-sac off Redlake Road, Pedmore. The property lies within easy reach of Stourbridge town centre, Mary Stevens Park and for those with sporting interests there are clubs catering for golf, rugby, tennis and squash close by.

There is good access to the surrounding areas, the motorway network and Birmingham city centre, there is mainline rail access at Stourbridge Junction or Hagley.

The property occupies a level rectangular site of good size, and is set back from Greenroyde behind a well kept fore-garden, having shaped lawns, a variety of mature shrubs and plants, together with a tarmac surfaced driveway for several vehicles.

The property was built circa 1960 / 1965 of traditional cavity brickwork, and is surmounted by a pitched tiled roof.

This property has not changed hands for a period in excess of 45 years, and now presents an opportunity to carry out general updating and refurbishment works, and it will be noted there is ample scope for further extending the accommodation, subject to the obtaining of usual planning and building regulation approvals.

It will be noted that most other properties in Greenroyde have been extended and updated to good effect.
