THORNEY HOUSE

35 Whittington Hill, Chesterfield, S41 9HJ

Offers Around £475,000

Offering deceptively well proportioned family accommodation; this elegant FOUR DOUBLE BEDROOMED and two bathroomed detached Victorian house has been refurbished by the existing owners to include re-plastering, re-wiring, re-plumbing and a new central heating system and has underfloor heating to both floors.

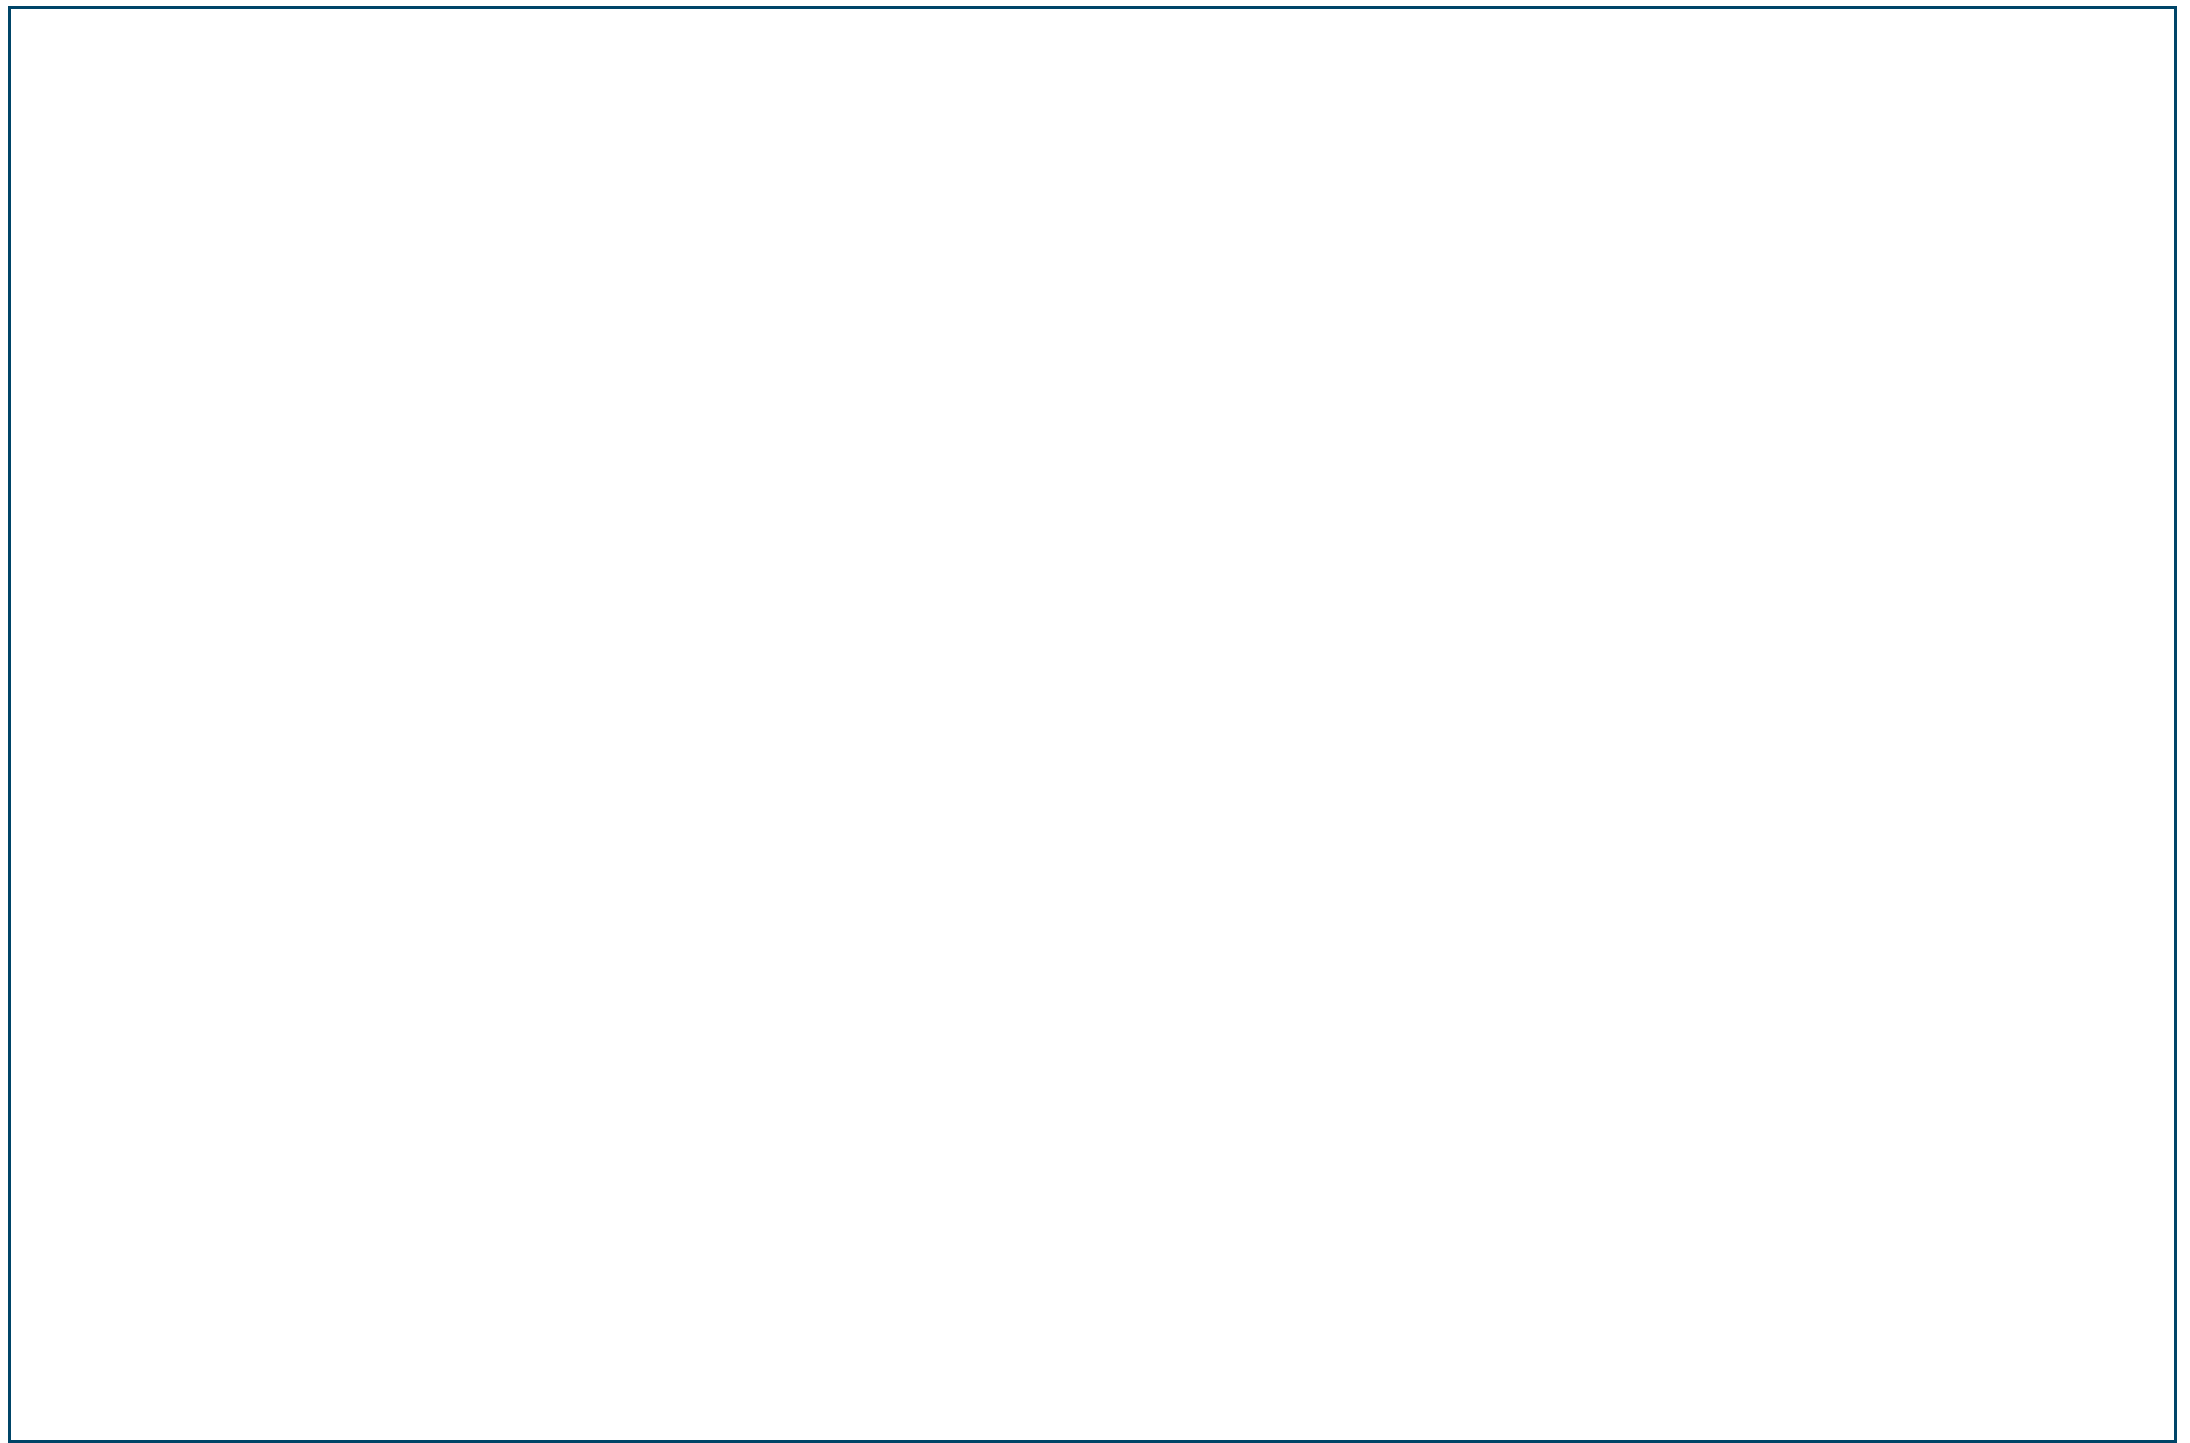

Complimented by a private landscaped rear garden with parking and a former Coach House to the rear, the property is most conveniently placed close to a good range of transport links including the M1 motorway at Junction 29 and railway station.

Having the style of a bygone era the accommodation has a lovely feel sympathetically blended with modern appointments and briefly comprises: reception hall, large dining room with an open grate Victorian fireplace and bay window, sitting room with a marble open grate fireplace, breakfast kitchen fitted with a range of bespoke hand built solid oak tongue and groove units and Rangemaster oven, rear hallway with office, utility and downstairs WC. Opening off the first floor landing is the master bedroom with en-suite shower room, three further double bedrooms and a dramatic bathroom with roll top bath and separate shower.

Elevated back from the road is an ornamental forecourt garden, attractive private rear garden being landscaped with defined sitting areas perfect for al-fresco dining/entertaining. Driveway to the rear with electric gates and ample parking for 4 vehicles and access to the Coach House which possibly has potential for conversion to ancillary accommodation (subject to any necessary consents).
