Saxton Mee

3-5 School Lane

Greenhill

£795,000

An exceptionally rare opportunity to acquire a Grade II Listed three double bed roomed and two bathroom detached former Yeomans house which has been extended and includes No 1 School Lane, a detached one bedroomed cottage within the extensive garden and grounds.

Set away from the main thoroughfare yet close to the heart of this highly sought after village of Greenhill, the property which is steeped in history with the deeds dating back to the Queen Elizabeth I period. There are a comprehensive range of nearby amenities including reputable schooling, nearby retails parks at St James and off Archer Road, together with nearby Millhouses and Graves Parks along with ease of access to the ring road, nearby supermarkets and sports clubs.

Ideal for a family (with great potential for the small cottage for a dependant relative or even Airbnb), the property is complemented by a delightful large garden which is beautifully stocked with a variety of plats and shrubs which provides a mass of colour in the spring and throughout summer. The main house, number 3 and 5 School Lane has not been offered to the open market for approx. 100 years and possesses a wealth of charm and character blended with modern appointments including gas fired central heating. Spacious reception hall with twin external doors, downstairs cloakroom/WC, laundry room, inner hall with under stairs store, three reception rooms with feature fireplaces and the sitting room having a multi fuel stove, fitted kitchen, pantry, twin staircases. First floor three double bedrooms, two excellent bathrooms.

The detached cottage annex comprises of a living room with stone flagged floor extending to the fitted kitchen with an Ideal combination boiler fitted around 2019. Landing, double bedroom and spacious bathroom.

Ample off road parking for five vehicles, beautiful gardens and grounds with outbuildings. Shed and external WC.
