An extremely well-presented house close to the middle of the village in a quiet location with little passing traffic.

22 Kentisworth is a detached house believed to have been built in the 1970s and occupies a very peaceful location at the end of the road with little passing traffic and some fine countryside views to the rear.

The house has well laid out and well presented internal accommodation. The front door opens into the hall with staircase to first floor and door to sitting room. This is a lovely triple aspect room with sliding doors to the garden and west-facing terrace making the most of the glorious far-reaching views. The kitchen/dining room is dual aspect and at over 23' long an excellent size with sliding doors to the garden. The kitchen has an excellent range of wall mounted and floor standing units, space and plumbing for washing machine, dishwasher and cooker, one and a half bowl enamel sink and drainer and back door to rear lobby. Off the hall is a beautifully tiled bath/shower room.

On the first floor there are two very good double bedrooms and a separate WC with bedroom one having doors out to a balcony making the most of the westerly view.

The property is approached from the road via double gates on to a private drive with parking and garage with up and over door. The main garden is to the rear of the house and is laid to lawn with fence and hedge borders and some mature trees.
