THE DWELLING

Built for the current owners, Bramley is a substantial brick built house in the quiet but highly accessible Broad Oak, a stones throw from Sturminster Newton.

There is an excellent array of reception rooms all with inter connecting doors for easy flow. The principle bedrooms give a wonderful outlook to the south over the fields and beyond.

ACCOMMODATION

All the reception rooms flow from the extensive and central hallway with galleried landing above. The main living areas have those views over the garden. For the full accommodation, please refer to the floor plan.

OUTSIDE

Approached down a no through lane and into an expansive driveway, the house sits in the centre of its plot giving lovely surrounding gardens with extensive lawns and an orchard and a wonderfully positioned Summer House all overlooking neighbouring fields with the hills beyond. There is a useful double garage to one side accessed by a linked walkway adjacent to the rear door of the house as well as a large machinery store.

SITUATION

Broad Oak is a small hilltop hamlet on the outskirts of Sturminster Newton. Sturminster Newton is a traditional market town. The town has a weekly market on Mondays, a range of shops including traditional butchers and delicatessen, supermarket, cafes, pubs, library, doctor and dental practices, health centre, churches and schools. The town also has an exceptional and active arts centre which provides a wide range of music, theatre and other events.
