SITUATION

Situation
Hambridge is a small village located in South Somerset. It shares many resources with the adjoining village of Westport. Local amenities include a thriving community primary school, church, pub, recreation ground and village hall. There are panoramic views across the Somerset Levels towards Burrow Hill. There is a secondary school at nearby Huish Episcopi. The small town of Langport provides everyday amenities including a medical centre, a supermarket, shops, library, veterinary surgery, banks, public houses and takeaways. The county town of Taunton has a wider range of facilities including access to the M5 (J25) and inter-city rail link. Bristol and Exeter International airports are within easy reach.

OUTSIDE

Gravel area to the front of the property. Gravel to the rear of the property with fruit trees and flower borders. The property provides no parking, although on road nearby.
