Chancellors are delighted to market for sale this superb selection of studio, one and two bedroom apartments situated within this imposing building featuring a Georgian style façade crafted from Portland stone.

Originally constructed in 1993 by the current owners, the property was further adapted for residential use in 2017 creating a high end luxury development within this up and coming area of north west London.

Oakenfield is located just off Kilburn High Road on the boundary with Maida vale, Queens park is situated to the west and St Johns Wood to the south east. Positioned within Zone 2 this central location offers excellent road and rail links along with a large selection of local shops, cosmopolitan restaurants and cafes.

The apartments are served by modern passenger lifts situated within the stunning split level entrance lobby with 24hr security and portorage facilities.

Each apartment is furnished and all are presented in excellent decorative condition throughout with early viewing through the appointed sole agent highly recommended.
