General Information

The Grange

Dating from around 1630, The Grange has been sympathetically improved by the current owners to create a lovely period home that retains many original period features, including decorative exposed stonework, mullion windows, exposed beams and structural roof joists, impressive stone fireplace in the dining room with the former village Vicars initial engraved to the side.

The main home provides spacious accommodation ideally suited to family purchasers, that briefly comprises entrance vestibule/utility with generous storage and integral appliances including, Bosch grill/oven and two fridges.

The breakfast kitchen by Drew Forsyth boasts an extensive range of light grey shaker style fitted units, including larder pantry cupboard, large central island with underlying base drawers with contrasting quartz worksurfaces and upstands along with undermounted Belfast style sink, black five oven Aga.

Leading from the breakfast kitchen into the central dining room having eight light mullions to the front elevation, beamed ceiling and stone fireplace with stove, storage shelving into the alcove and access through into the main lounge.

A spacious lounge with exposed stone surmounted arched entrance door leading out to the garden, nine light mullions, open fireplace with solid fuel burning grate, exposed beams, and internal door through to the entrance hall.

With access from the rear of the property the grand central entrance hall boasts a wealth of period features including carved timber staircase leading to a half-landing and galleried landing, along with feature windows, stone flooring and under stair wine store, separate cloaks/WC.

Completing the ground floor accommodation is a home office/snug and boiler room.

Accessed from the half-landing is a useful laundry room with fitted units and plumbing for washing machine and dryer. The galleried landing with pitched ceiling and exposed beams and trusses, decorative cross spindles, library/seating area and large eaves storage along with cylinder cupboard.

The principal bedroom is filled with natural light from the dual aspect mullion windows and benefits from an en-suite shower room with modern three-piece suite including double shower having hand shower and rainfall shower.

Two further large double bedrooms and the fourth bedroom that could be a double is currently used as a dressing room, having fitted wardrobes to both walls. House bathroom to either end of the landing, each benefit from a three-piece suite including freestanding bath, wash hand basin and WC.

The Coach House

Converted by the current owners, The Coach House offers ideal accommodation for housing extended family members and was converted with accessibility in mind, providing flexible and accessible accommodation with lift access between the ground and first floor.

Finished to a high specification throughout, this stone built detached property boasts a separate office accessed externally that could be incorporated into the living accommodation subject to obtaining any relevant planning consents.

The main accommodation comprises a well-planned kitchen with an extensive range of light grey shaker style fitted wall, base, and drawer units with granite worksurfaces and splashbacks, integral double Bosch oven/grill, integral dishwasher, and fridge/freezer. Muntin windows to the front and side elevations provide a wealth of natural light and access leads through into the sitting room.

Having uPVC bi-fold doors to the front elevation, inset ceiling spotlights and doorway leading through into the lift access. Accessed from the front of the property a separate home office has uPVC doors to the front elevation.

Completing the accommodation in the ground floor, a side entrance vestibule having staircase leading to the first-floor landing and giving access to the ground floor WC/cloaks.

The first-floor benefits from a large, pitched ceiling room, currently the main lounge but could also be used as a generous double bedroom with exposed beams and three large muntin windows to the side elevation. A centrally positioned laundry/shower room comprises a four-piece suite including double walk-in shower with rainfall, body jets and handheld shower, WC and two separate wash hand basins along with plumbing for washing machine and dryer and enjoying a sectional circular feature window.

The principal bedroom boasts a pitched ceiling with exposed beams and skylight, along with an extensive range of fitted wardrobes and drawers running the entire length of the external wall, along with bedside cabinets.

Externals

Access is gained directly off Cliffe Hill Lane leading into a cobbled courtyard area with parking for 2-3 cars at the main house, leading up to a further stone flagged forecourt at The Coach House providing additional parking for 2-3 cars. To the side of the main cobble courtyard is a detached stone-built WC, raised flowerbeds leading up to The Coach House to the side of which is a south-facing lawn with dwarf stone walling and flagged terrace with raised gravelled area and part stone/timber framed greenhouse.

The main house enjoys generous landscaped gardens with a southerly aspect, incorporating a central lawn with circular box hedging bordered by mature trees, established hedging and flowerbeds, with raised lawn and stone flagged terrace ideal for summer evenings and alfresco dining. A stone outhouse is plumbed and provides useful storage.
