An exceptional character home in a tranquil setting

Welcome to The Coach House, a beautifully converted, stone-built residence offering an abundance of charm, space, and serenity.

Set behind a gated driveway with room for up to six cars, this detached home perfectly balances period features with practical modern living. From its lantern-flanked entrance and cobbled courtyard to the peaceful tiered garden with countryside views, every element has been thoughtfully curated for relaxed, stylish living.

Charming living spaces

Enter through the vaulted entrance vestibule with wood laminate flooring, where elegant, wood-topped cabinetry conceals clever laundry storage – creating a refined, seamless welcome. Step through to the open-plan kitchen diner, a light-filled, sociable space with vinyl flooring, gas underfloor heating, and a blend of textures including exposed brick and warm Oak.

The shaker-style kitchen is as practical as it is stylish, featuring solid oak worktops, stone mullion windows above the sink, and a Rangemaster oven. A breakfast bar seats two to three people, while the integrated dishwasher and ample storage ensure modern ease.

In the dining area, dual-aspect windows, skylights, and French doors to the courtyard create a bright and inviting atmosphere. Panelling and exposed brick nod to the home's heritage, adding character and warmth.

The inner hallway features a solid Oak polished floor.

Relax and unwind

The main lounge is located on the central level – a bright, dual-aspect space with exposed beams, Oak-fitted mullion windows, a dual-fuel burner, and bifold French doors opening onto a south-facing fitted glass balcony with stainless steel rails. This is the perfect place for outdoor dining, BBQs, or simply enjoying the panoramic views.

Upstairs, three more beautifully presented double bedrooms await, all with vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, and statement stone mullion windows – two with skylights and two with solid Oak fitted wardrobes. The third bedroom has a solid Oak fitted desk and drawers. There's also lapsed planning permission for an ensuite to the master bedroom.

The family bathroom is a luxurious retreat, complete with freestanding bath, walk-in shower, and heritage-style fixtures beneath the beams.

On the lower level, discover a tranquil double bedroom with dual-aspect windows, an oak open wardrobe and dressing area, and an ensuite with shower and heated towel rail.

Outdoor bliss

Step out to the south-facing courtyard, a charming private cobbled space with a slate-roofed log store, enveloped by climbing plants and serenaded by the sound of the water feature from the garden beyond. A double electrical socket adds practicality.

The tiered rear garden offers a flagged patio with a second log store under the balcony, a lush lawn with flowerbeds and a small pond, and a lower gravelled level with vegetable beds, a new shed, and greenhouse – perfect for outdoor living and pottering. An outdoor tap contributes to ease of gardening. Peaceful and private, the garden enjoys sweeping views towards Emley Moor Mast.

There's also lapsed planning permission for a double garage and a garden room.
