Charnock Bates

A historic farmstead with land, views, and opportunity

Dating back to 1627, Upper Lumb Farm is a remarkable Grade II listed semi-detached farmhouse set within approximately 36.22 acres of prime grazing land.

South-facing, steeped in history, and enjoying panoramic views across the rolling hills of Cottonstones, the estate comprises the main cottage, a substantial stone barn with exciting conversion potential (subject to necessary planning consents), and a collection of fields and grounds that together create a rare lifestyle opportunity.

'You can imagine what it was like growing up here... it gave us the most idyllic childhood. We were always playing out in the fields with our friends, and our parents thrived on the community feel. It's so peaceful and picturesque, with so much wildlife and incredible views. There really is nowhere quite like it.'

Scott Crabtree

The Farmhouse

A four-bedroom character home, the farmhouse offers period charm in abundance. Deep-set windows frame sweeping views, exposed beams nod to the property's heritage, and feature fireplaces add warmth and character.

Ground floor

- Porch and hallway

A welcoming entrance with space for coats and boots, leading through to a hallway with countryside views.

- Kitchen diner

Dual aspect with spectacular views. The kitchen features a Whirlpool oven, four-ring gas hob, and extractor. In the dining area, there's an original Hunter multi-fuel fire, and exposed beams add rustic charm.

- Lounge

A beautiful reception room featuring a log burner set into an exposed stone wall, beams, plush carpets, and peacock-motif wallpaper reflecting the estate's resident birds.

First floor

- Principal bedroom
A spacious double with window seating, extensive fitted wardrobes, and stunning views.
- Double bedroom
Vaulted ceiling, exposed beams.
- Single/small double bedroom
Fitted wardrobes.
- Double bedroom
Dual aspect with hillside views, fitted storage.
- Bathroom
Wet-room style with shower, sink, toilet, heated towel rail, and storage cupboard.

Additional features: roof replaced last year, electric heating.

The Barn

A large stone barn set over split levels, currently housing stalls and pens, with scope to convert into one, two, or three dwellings (subject to necessary planning consents). Generous open spaces, original features, and large barn doors to both ends make this a versatile outbuilding ready for transformation.

Land and externals

- 36.22 acres of south-facing grazing land, divided into fields with excellent drainage
- A historic disused quarry, from which stone was once used to build the local church
- Driveway access
- Breathtaking open countryside views from every angle
- Single garage with storeroom to the rear

The land offers superb equestrian, agricultural, or lifestyle potential, with endless opportunities for those seeking space and self-sufficiency.
