Just 4.8 miles away lies Newport, a thriving market town with excellent schools like Haberdashers' Adams and Newport Girls' School, shops, Pubs, restaurants and events such as the Newport Show, May Fair, and Carnival. The History of Rose Farm: A truly beautiful period property with a rich and long history, the original building dating back 500 years to the mid 1600's. It has been considerably extended and improved over the years from the original farm building. Rose Farm was originally a working small holding and there is still evidence of this with pig sties and a barn where cattle were once housed. A major renovation project was undertaken by the current owner around 20 years ago whilst ensuring the traditional feel of it's heritage was maintained. The next chapter of this wonderful property awaits the new home owner.
