Location

A peaceful and friendly village, Bodedern sits in the heart of the wonderful Isle of Anglesey. In terms of amenities, it offers a welcoming pub, a shop and a Post Office. The entire island is bursting with unique things to see and do and is all accessible within a 30-minute drive. Close by are the neighbouring destinations of Holyhead and Trearddur Bay, the former abounds in charming shops and pubs as well as offering the striking Breakwater with its County Park. Meanwhile, Trearddur Bay is flanked by glorious, rugged coastline and sandy beaches and coves, as well as the picturesque South Stack Lighthouse. Travel to the other end of the island to visit the fabulous medieval town of Beaumaris with its dramatic castle and range of fun attractions. The world's second longest one-word place name, shortened to Llanfair PG, also sits nearby. Head to mainland Wales to spend a day at Llandudno, Conwy, Caernarfon or even the Snowdonia National Park for you outdoor enthusiasts.
