Discreetly nestled behind National Trust land and adjoining open fields is this quite unique property which is being sold for the very first time.

THE PROPERTY

There are attractive gardens of around a quarter of an acre and several incredible outbuildings including an garden annexe, and pool house. The property does offer a new owner a great opportunity to further improve, convert and amend if desired, although the house does offer immense appeal in its current guise. the house size measures to 1469 sq. ft. Additionally, the garden buildings cumulate to 110 sq. ft, which in total offers an impressive 2569sq.ft of space overall. The internal accommodation is arranged over 2 floors. there are 2 reception rooms and a small study on the ground floor. These rooms are complemented by an impressive kitchen/dining/ living area which is located to the rear of the house and has double doors opening to the gardens. Up on the 1st floor there are 3 good size bedrooms and three bathrooms. the layout has diversified over the years, having previously offered a 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom configuration.

THE GROUNDS

Once in the rear garden, there is a great area of level lawn, mature flower beds and borders, as well as areas of patio. There are also several fantastic outbuildings, which consists of a garden annexe with a living/kitchen, bedroom and shower room. An enclosed small pool building, a hot tub room as well as a further large storage shed. At the very end of the garden there is the perfect area for alfresco dining, where one can enjoy watching the sunset over the beautiful neighbouring fields.

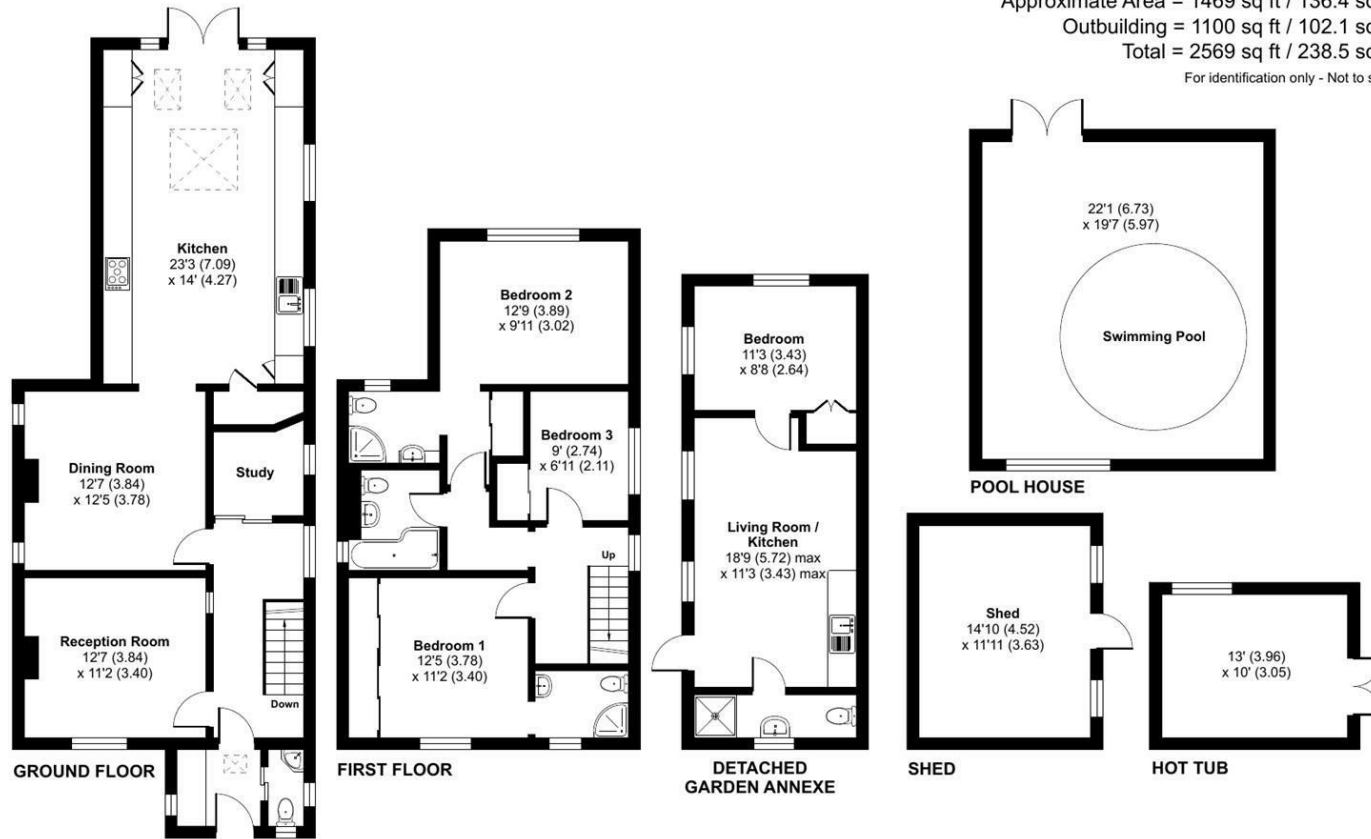

SITUATION

Passfield is a semi-rural hamlet, positioned two miles from the centre of Liphook and enjoys all the character of a rural community surrounded by rolling fields, National Trust and MOD owned lands. This property is located in what is now widely regarded as the centre of Passfield, adjacent to the general store and common land. Further facilities including supermarkets and local stores and cafes can be found in Liphook in addition its railway station servicing the Portsmouth/London Waterloo main line.
