SITUATION

The property is situated in a prime location within the highly regarded Berg development. Formally the grounds of Chiltley Place, the development was built during the 1960's and contains large mature detached properties, all of individual character and highly distinctive architecture. The properties are all set back from the roadside with open plan front gardens and the estate is well supplied with specimen trees, both evergreen and deciduous, together with wide grass verges and attractive areas of well laid out soft landscaping. Liphook mainline station lies within walking distance and provides commuter services to London Waterloo on the Portsmouth Line.

Liphook itself provides a wide range of recreational leisure and educational facilities, including a Sainsburys store, the award winning Bohunt Academy, Churcher's college and Highfield. The surrounding area is noted for its' outstanding countryside and abundance of walking , cycling and horse riding.

DIRECTIONS
