The Old Forge, Sandy Cross, NORTON, BROMYARD HR7 4PL

THE OLD FORGE is a smallholding just over 3 ACRES set amidst beautiful North East Herefordshire rolling countryside with views to the Malvern Hills. It is just over 2 miles from Bromyard on the Stourport road and having a gate from the Edvin Loach by-roads to the fields. N. B. There is the possibility to construct a drive from the gate on the Edvin Loach by-road round to the house, subject to planning permission, see attached plan.

The period brick, stone with tiled roof house has been extended into the former forge building to give a large drawing room area in which the forge fire and brick chimney have been retained. The loft rooms over the forge have not been converted but, subject to necessary permissions, could become extra bedroom space.

The house has night storage heating, fitted kitchen units, exposed timbers, oak board insulated floor in drawing room and, to the principal rooms, wood frame windows with acoustic double glazing.

On the south facing roof, there are 16 solar panels with the electricity produced feeding into the house and any excess to the grid for which a payment is made. This house is the ideal subject for further improvement.

The large mature attractive garden areas are a particular feature having numerous shrubs and trees with lawn areas interspersed with borders and a pond.

To the front there are superb views over the beautiful countryside to the Malvern Hills and to the rear a silvan backdrop. Approximately one-third of an acre.

The land, which joins the gardens, is in three enclosures of pasture together with a timber frame stock and fodder building and gate to Edvin Loach by-road.

THE GARDENS

These are to the front, side and rear of the house and have lovely views over open rolling countryside to the Malvern Hills.

They are of good-size and attractively laid with numerous ornamental and flowering shrubs and trees. They slope up to a summerhouse and bounded on one side by the fields which are part of the property. The front garden is partly bounded by an old feature natural stone wall, small stone barn and has a lawn with borders fronted by a trimmed hedge.

To the side of the house there is a path leading to the side door and an integral garden storeroom.

Steps through an arch lead to the upper garden area with its lawns interspersed by borders, trees and a pond area all with a silvan backdrop for privacy.

The trees in the garden include cherry, hazel, yew, box, fruiting crab, Bramley Russett and damson. Aluminium frame greenhouse.

THE LAND – APPROX. 2.75 ACRES

This is to the north and west side of the gardens and has a gate to the Edvin Loach by-road – see attached plan.

There are three enclosures of pasture land and a former vegetable area all level to gently sloping and having superb views of beautiful rolling countryside. To the east boundary there is an old natural stone wall formerly part of the Saltmarsh Estate.

In the east enclosure there is a depression, a former sand quarry, which may be suitable for a pond area.

In the corner of the three enclosures.

There is a timber frame enclosed STOCK AND FODDER BARN. This is ideal for sheep but could be converted to stables.

In front of the building there is an enclosed holding area. Also on the land there is a hen house and workshop.

SERVICES

Mains electricity and water. Private drainage.
