Entrance

Entering the property you are welcomed in to the spacious entrance hallway which offers access to the kitchen/living/diner. The original door in to the lounge is still in situ if needed in the future.

Lounge

Formal lounge is open to the extended kitchen/living/diner and offers ample space for seating. The lounge boasts a feature fireplace with log burner and floating mantle. Being open to the kitchen/living/diner it creates a wonderful space for hosting and socialising with friends and family, especially with access to the rear garden via French doors.

Kitchen/Living/Diner

Extended by the current owners this superb open plan living space boasts a fantastic high spec kitchen which boasts an abundance of storage space and an array of integrated appliances including electric hob with extractor above, dishwasher, double oven, washing machine and space for American style fridge/freezer. A large central island is made up of dark blue shaker style cabinets and is finished with granite worktops and solid wood breakfast bar. The units that run the perimeter of the room are complimentary pale blue shaker style cupboards finished with solid wood worktops. The kitchen offers an abundance of storage space. The room also offers ample space for a large dining table. French doors lead out to the rear garden and side door leads out to the driveway.
