Welcome to this expansive and meticulously refurbished five-bedroom residence, an impressive gem that stands out as one of the largest in the vicinity. Positioned strategically, this home is a commuter's delight, within walking distance to Thornton Heath, Selhurst, and Norwood Junction train stations.

The ground floor showcases the grandeur of this property with a bay-fronted reception room, ideal for hosting gatherings, complemented by an additional reception room perfect for formal dining. A well-appointed separate kitchen and a convenient utility area leading to a generously sized private garden offer both practicality and a tranquil outdoor escape. The ground floor is completed by a thoughtfully designed three-piece family bathroom.

Ascending to the upper levels, three freshly repainted double bedrooms await on the first floor, providing ample space for personal sanctuaries. The second floor boasts two jack-and-jill bedrooms, enhancing the flexibility of the living space, and another family bathroom for added convenience.

This property goes beyond its impressive size and location, offering additional advantages such as a chain-free status, excellent transport links, a comprehensive refurbishment, and freehold ownership. Immerse yourself in the comfort and possibilities that this home presents, combining modern living with a touch of timeless elegance.
