A period, double-fronted, semi-detached property situated on the outskirts of the popular market town of Montgomery requiring full renovation including reconnection of services

A period, double-fronted, semi-detached property situated on the outskirts of the popular market town of Montgomery requiring full renovation including reconnection of services. The property, once finished, will provide a beautiful elegant, and spacious, family home. The property has been stripped back to its bare walls so it is now all ready to start the renovation works. The accommodation briefly comprises entrance hall, two reception rooms to the front both with bay windows, further large kitchen/breakfast room with a large archway leading through to study/snug. Upstairs there are four good-sized bedrooms with the provision to provide two bathrooms/shower rooms. The property is set in a good-sized plot with separate vehicular access to the rear providing off-road parking together with block brick-built detached garage.

Montgomery is a lovely small town situated in the beautiful Montgomeryshire countryside with a good selection of local amenities and its famous castle.
