Ty Offa, Domgay Road, Four Crosses, SY22
6SW

Ty Offa, Domgay Road, Four Crosses, SY22 6SW
Offers In The Region Of £350,000

A 1970s individually designed spacious detached property providing highly flexibly laid out accommodation comprising: entrance hall, cloak cupboard, sitting room, and dining room both with feature vaulted ceilings, kitchen, rear porch, and former coal store that could be knocked together to create a utility room, two double ground floor bedrooms (although these rooms could also be used for other purposes, even as a possible ground floor annex) and a ground floor shower room. Upstairs there are two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom together with walk-in airing and linen cupboards. Decent-sized gardens are located mainly to the rear of the property with the scope to extend existing off-road parking to the front. The property has the benefit of oil heating, double glazing and an attached garage incorporating separate workshop and boiler areas. Ty Offa occupies a central location in the popular village of Four Crosses, which has a great range of local amenities and is conveniently located with an easy traveling distance of all three neighbouring towns of Shrewsbury Oswestry and Welshpool. The property would benefit from some modernisation but has been redecorated and carpeted throughout. As the house name suggests, the property is situated adjacent to the world-famous Offa's Dyke which is located immediately to the rear of the property.
