The Hollies was architecturally designed and virtually rebuilt in 2006 by the current vendors who created a large family home, giving it a modern day feel, whilst retaining the original features. The property has been tastefully extended and modernised over time. Its original features include inglenook fireplaces, original beams and trusses throughout the property, some of which are said to have been obtained from the Spanish Armada in the early 1800's.

Ground Floor

Upon entering the Hollies it instantly sets the impression of a spacious & much loved family home. From the porch leading to a large airy entrance hall with light spreading from a floor to ceiling window, which hugs the staircase offering scenic far-reaching views of the country side and the local village in the distance. The hallway leads to a large sitting room to the right and a welcoming kitchen and snug to the left. The hall also benefits from a downstairs cloakroom.

The large sitting room is bright and spacious, offering extensive natural light from its 3 sets of French doors and two picture windows looking across the gardens and fields. The sitting room also benefits from a multi-fuel burner set within a modern feature fireplace. A perfect room which suits all seasons from warm summer days through to the cosy winter nights.

To the left of the hallway, leading you to the heart of this beautiful home, is an open plan modern Kitchen/Living/Dining area known as “The Snug”, a cosy family room and also perfect for entertaining guests, family and friends. This is the oldest part of the property with a rich history. The kitchen has an excellent range of fitted units and integrated appliances, along with a pullout pantry and granite worktops.

The snug and living area has a set of large French doors to the south facing front of the house and gardens.

A historic inglenook fireplace constructed of bricks from Shawbury brickworks, includes an inset Stovax woodburning stove, and takes centre stage in this delightful room, giving a 'wow' factor in the heart of the home. Original beams and trusses partition the kitchen and take you back in time to when the Hollies was once a public house, many years ago.

Leading on from the kitchen, and snug, is another hallway providing access to this part of the property, it has the potential for several useful opportunities including a self-contained annexe, holiday let, workspace or simply to enjoy as an additional part of the home.

From the hallway leads to a spacious office/study with a door leading to the south facing front garden as well as a built-in storage cupboard. A good size utility room provides lots of storage cupboards and spaces for undercounter appliances, giving plenty of room to store all manner of extra household goods. Leading on from the utility room is a boot room with a large storage cupboard and a back door, with the added benefit of an additional bathroom with an electric shower. The boot room links to the utility and the garden room.

The garden room can be accessed from the hallway or boot room, where you will find a spacious and light filled area enjoying uninterrupted views overlooking the splendid gardens and 5 acres of pasture fields, including the two spring fed lily pools. The garden room has a set of French doors leading to a decking area which also shares the views over the fields and lily pools.
