Location

Hungarton Boulevard is a residential road in the Humberstone and Hamilton area of east Leicester, around 2.5 to 3 miles from the city centre. The neighbourhood is made up mainly of semi-detached and terraced houses, with a mix of homeowners and renters, making it popular with families and first-time buyers. The area has good access to local amenities including nearby primary schools such as Humberstone Infant Academy, GP practices, small shops and regular bus services connecting to Leicester city centre. Surrounding streets are suburban in character, with some open green spaces nearby and a generally family-oriented community.
