AGENT NOTE

Supplied services and appliances have not been tested by the agent. Prospective purchasers are advised to make their own enquiries.

THE SITUATION

East Street is one of Newquay's two main retail areas being close the town centre, Towan Beach and the newly regenerated Killacourt. The busy all year round location has in the past few years seen a major injection of objective one cash to enhance the area. East Street is one of Newquay's four main retail areas and plays host to many commercial properties including the Post Office ,the new Papa Johns The Victoria Hotel ,Tesco Express and the Ark complex. Newquay is Cornwall's premier holiday resort and for many years has been in Britain's top five most popular destinations to visit.

THE BUSINESS

The properties at 17 and 17a East Street have belonged to the same family for over 80 years and this is the first time since 1936 that it is being brought to the open market The property itself predates 1853 when the deeds record that the first owner, John Osborne died at sea on a voyage from Swanage to Newquay. The lucky new owner will be buying into a piece of Newquay history. 17 East street has been operating as a very successful fishmongers with preparation rooms to the ground floor and five bedroom living accommodation over a further two floors. 17a is currently let out to tenants on a ten year lease. This commercial freehold premises also includes a hidden gem by the way of an enclosed outdoor space to the rear. Early viewing is highly recommended.
