Location

Located in the traditional Cornish Village of Cubert, the immediate facilities include a farm shop, primary school, community hall and park. The quaint sixteenth century inn The Smugglers is located in the nearby hamlet of Trebellan on the edge of the village and is famous for its annual pie and ale festival whilst offering all year round delicious lunches or evening meals.

The rugged Cornish coastline of Holywell Bay is within 1.5 miles where you will find a beautiful golden sandy beach backed by stunning dunes along with a coastal footpath offering superb walks and vistas. The seaside town of Newquay is approximately five miles away and offers a wider range of facilities to include a range of shopping, schooling banking and a host of eateries, pubs and restaurants. Offering the choice of seven glorious sandy beaches, coves and headlands along with a historic iconic picturesque working fishing harbour, there is something for everyone. Newquay International Airport is within 11.5 miles where to can fly to a whole host of destinations allowing the freedom of travel on your doorstep.

The city of Truro is approximately 12 miles distance and offers an extensive range of eateries and bars. Its mainline train station allows you to connect to all major towns and cities. The newly refurbished Hall for Cornwall is a must for all theatre-goers hosting all the top shows. With it's iconic cobbled streets, browsable shops and magical mews gives this most southerly city in Great Britain its quirky character.

Choice of finishes and fitments detailed in this specification are only available where stage of construction permits. Under the provisions of the Property Misdescriptions Act 1991 prospective purchasers are advised that the design dimensions quoted are approximate having been prepared from architect's working drawings. Variations may occur in construction due to the tolerances on materials or working practices. Purchasers should therefore satisfy themselves at the time of construction as to the actual finished dimensions. Elevation treatments, window arrangements and materials may vary from plot to plot. Requests for alterations which would affect the external appearance of a property cannot be accommodated as such alterations could require further planning approval and might adversely affect the carefully considered and cohesive design concept for the development and delay construction. These particulars are produced in good faith and believed to be correct at the time of going to print. They do not constitute any part of a Contract, and purchasers are advised to check salient details for themselves. Prior to exchange of contracts purchasers will be required to inspect the working drawing for the property they are purchasing and confirm that they are satisfied regarding the details.
