Trackside

Trackside presents a rare opportunity to acquire a self-contained commercial property and a residential dwelling, ideally located in the heart of Mid Cornwall. With convenient access to the entire county via the A30, this property offers exceptional versatility and potential.

The site, originally constructed and historically operated as a successful glazing company, features a fully insulated workshop suited to a wide range of business ventures. Possible uses include a car garage/MOT testing station, shipping warehouse or storage facility, indoor play area or playgroup, dentist, doctor's office, or a food outlet, all subject to the necessary planning permissions or building consents. The commercial building boasts a spacious 2,259 square feet of trading/production area, a reception, office space, two WCs, and allocated off-street parking.

The separate owner's accommodation is thoughtfully designed for comfort and relaxation, offering a modern interior. This includes a lounge/dining room, a well-appointed kitchen with a separate utility room, and a conservatory/second living space. The residence comprises four bedrooms, including a master suite with an en-suite bathroom.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the potential and versatility of this exceptional property, where there are endless possibilities.

Location

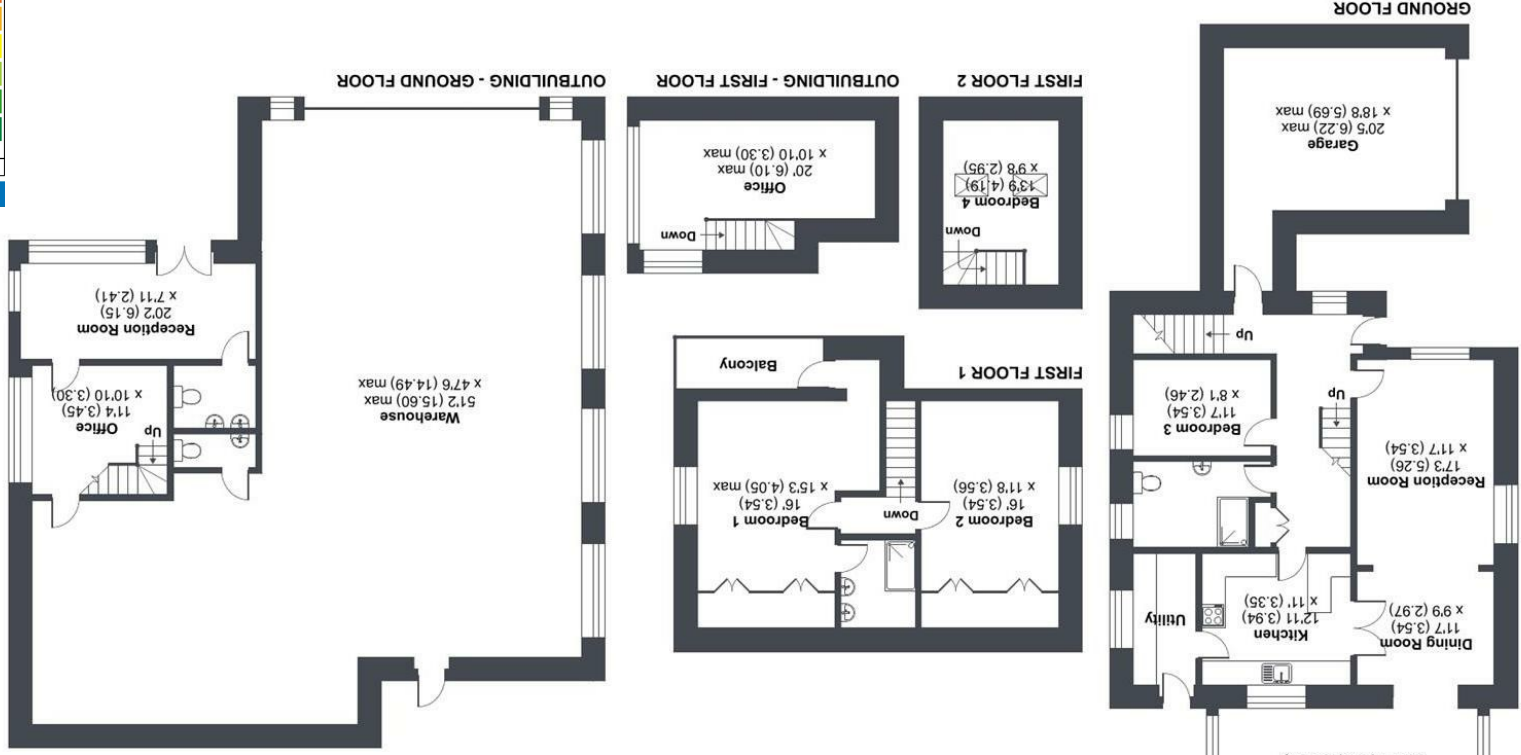

Situated in the village of St Columb Road, this property benefits from a range of local amenities, including a Co-op supermarket, a primary school, and a branch line railway station connecting Newquay to Par. Just 1.5 miles away is the popular Kingsley Village retail park, which features a variety of stores such as Next, Marks & Spencer, Boots, and Mountain Warehouse, alongside Starbucks, restaurants, and a petrol station.

The location is highly convenient, providing easy access to nearby towns such as Newquay, St Austell, and Truro, with the A30 just minutes away. The neighboring areas of St Columb, Indian Queens, and St Columb Road are also within close proximity. Newquay, located approximately 7 miles away, offers a broader selection of shops and schools, along with its historic fishing harbour and some of Europe's most stunning coastline. Public transport links include buses and trains to surrounding areas, while Newquay Airport is just a 7-mile drive, adding to the convenience of this excellent location.
