Rare opportunity in today's market to acquire this impressive detached, stone built bungalow which lies to the edge of Eggleston village on such an idyllic setting . An elevated site where one can walk for miles and enjoy scenic beauty or simply relax and enjoy those breath taking views over unspoilt countryside from your own garden. It stands on an impressive site nicely laid back within its own grounds off the B6278.

Generous driveway gives lovely curb appeal running to the detached stone built garage with fenced and stone wall boundaries surrounding the property. Internally there is spacious, yet manageable accommodation in excellent decorative order throughout. There are two main double bedrooms and a third single, leading to a delightful garden room extension with so many rooms capturing the natural rolling countryside.

Imagine waking to those views from the master bedroom or whilst entertaining family and friends in the lounge or dining room, which nicely leads to a cosy snug, which could be used as a spacious office or further bedroom. The well equipped kitchen breakfast room adds to what is an excellent amount of internal accommodation. The bungalow also features an alarm system and uPVC double glazing.

Please Note: Council tax band D. Freehold basis. EPC Band E
