Inside, the house boasts a generous layout, with three well-proportioned bedrooms, perfect for family living. The living areas are expansive, with three reception rooms that offer versatile options for entertaining or relaxation. You could use the front reception room as a formal living space, while the rear could serve as a cosy family room, with plenty of natural light pouring in through large windows.

The separate utility room is a practical addition, providing extra space for laundry and storage, and keeping the rest of the house tidy and organized.

The four-piece bathroom suite is another highlight of this property, offering a spacious and functional design. It includes a separate shower cubicle, bathtub, toilet, and a washbasin, all arranged with classic 1970s charm and offering plenty of room for your daily routines.

The house is situated in a tranquil neighbourhood, with an open green space just across the street, providing an ideal spot for leisurely walks or outdoor activities. This peaceful location, combined with the spacious interiors, makes it an ideal family home, full of potential for personal updates or to enjoy as is.
