Elmway Hilda Park, DH2 2LX

Offering high-end finishes, an impressive layout and a secluded garden, this exceptional property must be seen in person to fully appreciate the quality on offer.

From the moment you enter the porch, you'll notice the attention to detail – from the oak doors, architraves and skirting to the parquet flooring and zoned underfloor heating across multiple rooms. The welcoming hallway includes a cloaks cupboard and leads to a stunning bathroom complete with a separate shower cubicle, bath with handset, WC and washbasin.

The main bedroom is generously sized and fitted with quality built-in furniture. A second double bedroom features a skylight and comfortably accommodates a double bed. There's also a home office with access to the boarded loft space, which offers further potential – subject to the necessary permissions – for conversion into a third bedroom if desired.

The heart of the home is the expansive open plan living and dining area, where bi-folding doors open out to the rear garden and a characterful multi-fuel stove sits within a feature fireplace. This space flows seamlessly into the stylish kitchen, which includes a cooking range, Belfast sink, integrated fridge/freezer, dishwasher, washing machine, granite worktops, display cabinetry and French doors leading outside.

The rear garden is a real highlight – private, low maintenance and backing onto woodland, with artificial turf, slate patio, summerhouse and shed. Off-street parking is available to the front. There is also a side garden which is of low maintenance.

Freehold and finished to a superb standard throughout, this is a home that blends practicality with luxury. Early viewing is highly recommended.
