The Guarantor's obligation will remain in force even if the Landlord allows the Tenant extra time to comply with their obligations or does not insist on strict compliance by the Tenant with their obligations under this Agreement.

- 12.8 In the event of any conflict or dispute arising between the Landlord and the Tenant, they respectively agree that, as part of a wider aim of seeking to resolve any such conflict or dispute in a reasonable, constructive, proportionate and timely manner, they will actively consider making use of alternative forms of dispute resolution (including the RICS Conflict Avoidance Process for the Rural Sector) before referring any dispute to arbitration or expert determination.

SCHEDULE 5

ENTITLEMENTS, QUOTAS AND SUPPORT PAYMENTS

1 In this Schedule:

‘Entitlement Scheme’ means any statutory scheme of entitlements, allocations, quotas or support payments within United Kingdom legislation (including any European Union legislation incorporated into United Kingdom legislation) that affects the right of any person to produce or deal in any agricultural commodity or which entitles any person to receive any payment, subsidy or guaranteed price in respect of the produce of agricultural land or the occupation or management of agricultural land and includes (without limitation) the sustainable farming scheme, the delinked payments scheme, any schemes under the Agriculture Act 2020 or the Agriculture (Wales) Act 2023, any remaining elements of the Basic Payment Scheme and any additions to or replacements of such schemes.

‘Entitlement’ refers to any entitlement, allocation, quota or other benefit under an Entitlement Scheme.

2 The expression ‘Tenant’s Entitlements’ means any Entitlement acquired by the Tenant at their own expense and which is registered or held in the name of the Tenant or in the name of a partnership of which the Tenant is a partner or a company of which the Tenant is a member or to which such partnership or company is entitled.

3 The expression ‘Landlord’s Entitlements’ means any Entitlement allocated to, or in respect of, the Holding under any Entitlement Scheme or made available to the Tenant by the Landlord or a previous tenant other than Tenant’s Entitlements.

4 At the commencement of this Agreement:

(a) the Landlord's Entitlements comprise the following:

NIL

(b) the Tenant's Entitlements comprise the following:

NIL

5 This part of this Schedule is intended by the parties to apply to any Entitlement Scheme existing at the commencement of this Agreement and to any Entitlement Scheme introduced during the Term, with the intent that the following principles will be applied to any such scheme irrespective of its detailed conditions, rules or procedures:

- (a) Any further Entitlements available to be acquired on the basis of the existence of the Entitlements referred to in paragraph 4(a) will be Landlord's Entitlements, and all further Entitlements available to be acquired on the basis of the existence of the Entitlements referred to in paragraph 4(b) will be Tenant's Entitlements.
- (b) Save as to Entitlements within the scope of paragraph (a), all further Entitlements available to be acquired on the basis of the history of occupation of the Holding or the activation of Entitlements by the occupier of the Holding before the commencement of this Agreement, and any Entitlements available to be acquired without payment on the basis of the occupation or management of the Holding after the commencement of this Agreement will be acquired and will be Landlord's Entitlements.
- (c) The Landlord has the right at their own expense to acquire for the benefit of the Holding any further Entitlements which they reasonably consider necessary for the profitable farming of the Holding, and the Tenant will cooperate by taking all steps reasonably required under the rules of any Entitlement Scheme to secure and retain such Entitlements for the benefit of the Holding. Such Entitlements will be Landlord's Entitlements.
- (d) If, because of the acquisition of further Entitlements at the Landlord's expense, it is reasonable for the Rent of the Holding to be increased sooner than the next rent review under Schedule 3, the parties will seek to agree the amount of any reasonable increase to reflect the acquisition of further Entitlements only, and in default of agreement the amount of such increase will be determined under Clause 12 and will be added to the Rent payable until the next rent review under Schedule 3, or until the end of the Term if no such review takes place.

- (e) All Landlord's Entitlements will be made available to the Tenant throughout the Term.
- (f) No Landlord's Entitlements will be disposed of by the Tenant during the term and all Landlord's Entitlements will be returned to the Landlord at the end of the Term.
- (g) The Tenant will be free to acquire and dispose of any Tenant's Entitlements during the Term and to retain them for their own benefit at the end of the Term.

6 For the purposes of Section 17(1) of the Agricultural Tenancies Act 1995 the Landlord consents to the acquisition of Tenant's Entitlements by the Tenant during the Term.

7 The Landlord and the Tenant mutually agree that each of them:

- (a) Will use their best endeavours on the introduction of any new Entitlement Scheme to secure the allocation of the maximum number of Entitlements available to the occupier of the Holding.
- (b) Will comply with the requirements of any Entitlement Scheme necessary to retain the Landlord's Entitlements for the benefit of the occupier of the Holding.
- (c) Will comply with any statutory or regulatory requirements applicable to them regarding Entitlements (including but not limited to active farming, greening, cross-compliance, environmental and production requirements) and will not allow any Entitlements belonging to the other to lapse or be reduced or confiscated through any failure of theirs to comply with such requirements.
- (d) Will supply to the other on request copies of any documents in connection with any application or claim for Entitlements.
- (e) At the termination of this Agreement (including so far as may be necessary after the expiry of this Agreement) to take all necessary steps to:
 - (i) secure the transfer of the Landlord's Entitlements to the Landlord or to such other person(s) as the Landlord may direct, and
 - (ii) enable the Tenant to retain all Tenant's Entitlements for their own benefit.

- 8 If, after the commencement of any Entitlement Scheme, it becomes possible to obtain a further allocation of Entitlements under that Scheme (or any modification of that Scheme) the obligations in this Part of this Schedule shall apply in relation to such Entitlements.
- 9 The Tenant agrees with the Landlord:
- (a) Not to set aside more of the Holding than the minimum necessary to satisfy any set aside condition of an Entitlement Scheme.
 - (b) Not without the Landlord's prior written consent to do anything which might have the effect of transferring Landlord's Entitlements to anyone other than an incoming occupier of the Holding on termination of this Agreement.
 - (c) To notify the Landlord in writing within fourteen days of acquiring any Tenant's Entitlements providing full details of the nature, amount and cost of the Tenant's Entitlements acquired.
 - (d) To claim against the Entitlements in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations so as to ensure that neither the Entitlements nor any part thereof are lost or taken away either temporarily or permanently.
 - (e) Not to lend, lease, charge or otherwise dispose of the Entitlements.
 - (f) To provide the Landlord with any information reasonably requested by the Landlord concerning the Entitlements (including but not limited to any farming or other activities of the Tenant on the Holding or elsewhere).

 - (h) The provisions of this clause 5.4 shall remain in effect after the expiry of this agreement so far as they remain capable of being performed and so far as may be necessary and appropriate.
- 10 In the final year of the Term the Landlord and the Tenant will agree (or failing agreement will have determined under Clause 12) the content and submission of claims for the allocation or

- 11 If at the end of the Term the amount or quality of Landlord's Entitlements transferred to the Landlord is less than the amount or quality of the Landlord's Entitlements specified in paragraph 4 above plus any further Landlord Entitlements referable to paragraphs 5(a), (b) or (c) above (subject to adjustment on account of mandatory cuts or increases) the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the cost of acquiring sufficient Entitlements of comparable quality to restore the Landlord's Entitlements and shall compensate the Landlord for any other loss suffered as a result of the reduction of the Landlord's Entitlements.
- 12 If at the end of the Term the Tenant is prevented for any reason from retaining any Tenant's Entitlements for their own benefit and such Entitlements are acquired for the benefit of the Landlord or another occupier of the Holding, the Landlord shall pay compensation to the Tenant equal to the market value of the Entitlements so acquired.
