welcome to

Norwich Road, Cawston, Norwich

A well-proportioned 4 bedroom semi-detached house with sizeable gardens and plenty of parking, option of ground floor bedroom and the benefit of a non-estate village setting.

Description

This property offers so much more than you might anticipate so well worth a look! A spacious 4 bedroom semi with 2 receptions given the option of a ground floor bedroom if needed.

Set well back from the road to the front with plenty of off road parking to your side driveway which continues to the rear and enjoying spacious gardens stretching away to the rear. Enjoys a well-established, non-estate village setting, with oil-fired heating and double-glazing. The village offers a range of amenities including pub, cafe, shop and first school and is within catchment for the highly regarded schooling at nearby Reepham which is through to Sixth Form.

Approximately 30 minutes' from the Coast and 17 minutes' from Norwich Airport (source AA).

With 2 roof light windows to section of sloped ceiling (subject to local authority regulations, there could be some potential to provide home office and cloaks WC in this space, with shower room to ground floor below).

Outside

To the front the property is set well back from the road with dwarf wall road side, flower and shrub beds, lawn, shingle driveway for 4 cars and 5 bar gate opening to continued driveway leading to the rear. Originally the driveway continued around to the rear to access the garage building but the owners have opted to have a fence across the driveway for their own purposes but looks as if this could be opened up again if needed.

To the rear of the property is an enclosed area of garden with lawn and paving pathway leading across to gate which opens to a sizeable area of garden at the rear, again lawned and enclosed and containing timber garden shed, green house and garage/workshop with double doors and being brick and block built.
