Situation

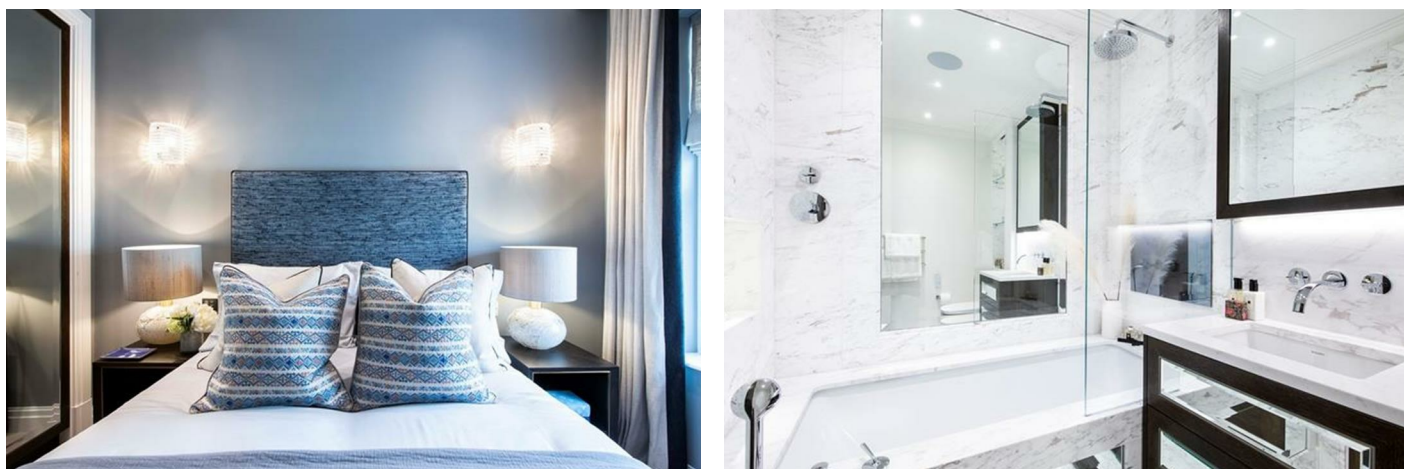

Prince of Wales Terrace is located in the heart of Kensington, home to some of London's finest architecture. The Kensington area displays a combination of Georgian and Victorian architecture; many buildings have been divided into elegant apartments such as the ones inside the Prince of Wales Terrace.

Kensington is centrally located and benefits from easy access to other areas of the city, including South Kensington via the District and Circle lines. High Street Kensington, boasts a wide selection of shops, restaurants, pubs/bars as well as its own tube station.
