Castle Frome, Ledbury, Herefordshire HR8 1HG

Hazel Cottage

Location

Castle Frome is a rural community surrounded by rolling Herefordshire countryside. There is good access to the cities of Worcester and Hereford (each approximately 10 miles) and the popular towns of Ledbury (8 miles) and Malvern (5 miles), all of which provide a comprehensive range of shops, schools, restaurants and medical facilities.

There is a local shop, pub and church at neighbouring Fromes Hill whilst the nearby village of Bishops Frome has two further pubs, a community shop and the Hop Pocket 'Shopping Village'. There are further village facilities in nearby Cradley including a doctors surgery.

The property is well placed for commuting with access to the M50 motorway available approximately 4 miles to the south of Ledbury and the M5 is easily accessible at Worcester. There are mainline railway stations at Malvern and Ledbury with direct trains to London, Birmingham, Worcester and Hereford.

Property Description

Hazel Cottage is an attractive semi-detached stone cottage situated in a rural location enjoying stunning panoramic westerly views across unspoilt Herefordshire countryside towards the Welsh Mountains.

The cottage has interesting character features including wooden latch doors and a feature fireplace with wood burning stove. There is oil fired central heating, double glazing and it is understood fast fibre broadband is available.

It is arranged on the ground floor with an enclosed entrance porch, reception hall, a bedroom/study, attractive sitting room with dining area, a utility room with WC off and a spacious breakfast kitchen. On the first floor the landing gives access to two bedrooms and a bathroom with WC.

Outside there are two driveways providing off road parking. There is also a useful large workshop with power.

The terraced garden is a particular feature of the property being arranged with seating areas and a viewing platform. Beyond the garden is an attractive area of sloping mixed woodland with a good selection of mature trees.
