Property Description

Hope End School House is a most attractive Grade II listed detached period home situated in the favoured village of Wellington Heath nestled amidst the rolling Herefordshire countryside. Dating back to the mid 1800's, the property was a former school serving the village up until the 1950's, when it was then converted into a residential dwelling with a substantial rear extension added in the 1980s.

The current vendors have sympathetically enhanced the property to create a fine contemporary home whilst retaining many character features including original mullion stone windows to the front, impressive double height vaulted ceilings and striking fireplaces. The property is exceptionally well presented throughout, with the current vendors showing a natural flare for design.

The accommodation, which extends to approximately 2,294 sq ft, is arranged on the ground floor with an entrance porch, headmasters room, striking drawing room with wood burning stove, study, cloakroom, dining room, kitchen and separate snug. On the first floor a landing leads to four double bedrooms, further single bedroom/dressing room and a family bathroom.

Outside, Hope End School House is approached by a sweeping gravelled driveway providing a generous area of parking with turning area.
