Wheatsheaf Close, Fromes Hill, Ledbury, Herefordshire, HR8 1HT

The Elder

Location & Description

Situated in the rural hamlet of Fromes Hill, conveniently located on the A4103 equidistance between the cathedral cities of Hereford and Worcester, both offering a wide range of shopping, dining and entertainment options.

The Victorian spa town of Malvern and the historic market town of Ledbury are just a short car journey away and provide a haven for independent cafes, restaurants and boutiques. There is a mainline train station at Malvern and Ledbury, providing easy access to London Paddington and Birmingham New Street.

Fromes Hill is home to the family friendly Wheatsheaf Inn and Restaurant, offering a wide range of home cooked meals. Adjacent to the development is Fromes Hill Services offering a convenience store, outdoor clothing store, takeaway and a café.

The nearby Hop Pocket Shopping Village offers a unique collection of independent shops including a garden centre, gift shop and food hall providing a selection of locally sourced produce.

Fromes Hill is also home to the Grade II listed St Michaels Church built circa 1875.

The nearby bus stop provides easy access to the surrounding towns of Ledbury, Bromyard and Leominster.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, there are numerous opportunities to explore the surrounding countryside.

The neighbouring village of Bishops Frome is just 2.5 miles away with its popular village hall offering a number of activities.
