4 Horton Mews

Location & Description

Thornbury is a hamlet in rural Herefordshire, about four miles north of the town of Bromyard. The market town of Bromyard offers a range of local facilities including shops, pubs, supermarket, bakery, butchers, bank and Post Office together with primary and secondary schools. The cathedral cities of Worcester and Hereford are 14 and 16 miles distant providing M5/M50 motorway access to Birmingham and the West Midlands together with railway links to Birmingham New Street and London Paddington.

Property Description

4 Horton Mews is a charming barn conversion enjoying an idyllic rural setting affording fine views across the surrounding Herefordshire countryside. The property forms part of a small development and was originally converted in 1999. 4 Horton Mews is well presented throughout with lovely character features including solid wood internal doors and a striking exposed brick fireplace.

Benefitting from double glazing and electric heating, the accommodation on the ground floor comprises an entrance hall, living/dining room with a wood burning stove, garden room and a breakfast kitchen. On the first floor a landing leads to the primary bedroom with an en suite shower room, three further bedrooms and a bathroom.

A shared driveway leads to two off road parking spaces and in turn leads to a private garden which has been designed with low maintenance in mind.

Offered with no onward chain, an early inspection is highly recommended.
