Pilgrims

Location

Pilgrims occupies a very pleasant position in the heart of the old village of Cradley on the border of Herefordshire and Worcestershire. The property is strategically well placed for access to a number of major centres including the city of Worcester (ten miles), Hereford (sixteen miles), Malvern (five miles) and Ledbury (seven miles). The favoured village of Cradley is well served with a number of local amenities including a doctor's surgery with a dispensing pharmacy, primary school and the Red Lion public house, which is within easy reach at Stiffords Bridge. The property is close to the church and listed black and white village hall, where there is a heritage room (offering office facilities) and a post office service, which visits twice a week. The popular towns of Great Malvern and Ledbury both provide further excellent facilities and amenities including mainline railway stations. The property is also well placed for transport links with the M5 motorway accessed at Worcester and the M50 to the south of Ledbury. The local area is also renowned for its educational facilities including a variety of highly regarded state and private schools (notably Malvern College and Malvern St James School as well as The Downs and Elms Preparatory Schools).

Property Description

Pilgrims is an individual detached property built in the late 1960s and most pleasantly located close to the village church.

The deceptively spacious and flexible accommodation has the benefit of mains gas fired central heating and double glazing. It is arranged on the ground floor with an entrance hall, cloakroom with WC, dining kitchen, a utility room, sitting room, large family room and a ground floor bedroom with an Ensuite shower room. On the first floor the landing gives access to four bedrooms and a refitted bathroom with WC.

Outside there is off road parking and a large garden which is enclosed and private to the rear, in all extending to approximately half an acre.

Services

We have been advised that mains water, gas, electricity and drainage are connected to the property. This information has not been checked with the respective service providers and interested parties may wish to make their own enquiries with the relevant local authority. No statement relating to services or appliances should be taken to imply that such items are in satisfactory working order and intending occupiers are advised to satisfy themselves where necessary.

Tenure

We are advised (subject to legal confirmation) that the property is Freehold.

Directions

From the Ledbury office turn left at the traffic lights and proceed through the town centre. Proceed straight over the traffic lights by the railway station onto the B4214 Bromyard Road. Continue out of Ledbury, passing through the village of Bosbury and proceed into Cradley. Continue through the village passing the village shop and doctors surgery. After the sharp left hand bend turn immediately right in to Finchers Corner signed posted to Mathon and Colwall, the church and village hall. Continue to the end of this lane and then turn left. Proceed up the hill and follow the road around to the left and the property will then be found immediately on the left hand side just after the war memorial.
