The Threshing House

Location

Bockleton is small rural village surrounded by Worcestershire countryside and located within easy reach of the nearby towns of Tenbury Wells, Leominster and Bromyard all of which provide a good range of amenities including a railway station in Leominster.

Property Description

The Threshing House is an interesting barn conversion forming part of an attractive courtyard development of 6 properties.

The accommodation is arranged over 3 floors and would benefit from some updating. It does have the benefit of mains gas fired central heating and double glazing.

On the ground floor there is an entrance lobby, inner hall, fitted kitchen, sitting room and a conservatory. At first floor level the landing gives access to three bedrooms and a bathroom with WC. On the second floor there is a further bedroom and a shower room with WC.

Outside there is parking in the communal courtyard and The Threshing House has a small enclosed garden to the rear.

Services

We have been advised that mains water, electricity and gas are connected to the property. Drainage is to a shared private system with any costs split between the 6 properties in the development.

This information has not been checked with the respective service providers and interested parties may wish to make their own enquiries with the relevant local authority. No statement relating to services or appliances should be taken to imply that such items are in satisfactory working order and intending occupiers are advised to satisfy themselves where necessary.

Tenure

We are advised (subject to legal confirmation) that the property is Freehold.

Directions

Proceed out of the town of Bromyard on the A44 in the direction of Leominster. After approximately 4 miles turn right signposted to Hampton Charles, Bockleton and Hatfield. Proceed along this lane for 2 miles and then continue straight over the staggered crossroads. After a further 1.2 miles turn right onto an unmade track signed Home Farm and The Courtyard. Continue along this track and then turn left by the five bar gate and proceed down the right hand side of Swallow Barn and fork sharp left into the courtyard. The Threshing House will then be found in the far right hand corner.
