Old Vicarage Cottage

Location & Description

The village of Longdon is situated on the Gloucestershire border with Worcestershire approximately four miles south of Upton upon Severn and just approximately 5.3 miles east of Tewkesbury. Tewkesbury provides a comprehensive range of amenities, whilst Cheltenham, Malvern and Worcester which are all within easy striking distance provide more extensive shopping and cultural facilities as well as a choice of excellent independent and state schools including the nearby Bredon School. Sport is well catered for with National Hunt Racing at Cheltenham, Worcester and Stratford upon Avon. Transport communications are excellent. Junction 1 of the M50 and Junctions 8 and 9 of the M5 are all within immediate driving distance and provide direct links to the Midlands, South West, South Wales and London. There are mainline railway stations in Worcester, Cheltenham, Gloucester and nearby Malvern.

Property Description

Old Vicarage Cottage is a beautifully situated period cottage dating back to the 17th century but having been extended further during Victorian times and again in 1992.

The property is approached via a gated driveway leading to the block paved drive proceeding up to the front of the house where it opens to allow ample parking for vehicles and giving access to the detached brick built garage. To the right hand side of the driveway is a beautiful shaped lawn with planted beds offering a variety of colour and vibrance throughout the year via its array of plants and shrubs all enclosed by a fenced perimeter.

The cottage itself offers period character and charm, coupled with the amenities of modern day living. The rooms benefit from double glazing and LPG central heating and are well proportioned and are ideal for family living or those looking for a tranquil village existence. The front of the property is a mix of brick and timber construction set under a pitched tiled roof. The accommodation throughout is light and airy. The hardwood front door with glazed insets and matching double glazed side panel is set under a pitched tiled roof and opens through to
