SITUATION

The land is situated to the east of Willand village. The village offers a primary school, Spar/petrol station and sports/tennis club.

There are good road links to the B3181, which links to Cullompton to the south about 2.8 miles, where the M5 motorway can be accessed. To the north Junction 27 on the M5 motorway is about 3.6 miles.

Cullompton provides the surrounding area with suitable services and amenities to support a busy local population.

DESCRIPTION

The land comprises a single level pasture field which extends to about 6.5 acres, suitable for the grazing of livestock and production of grass silage and hay crops.

The field is bordered to the east by a side stream of the River Culm. The remaining boundaries are mature hedges.

The soils are described as loamy and clayey floodplain soils with naturally high groundwater resulting in some seasonal flooding on part of the field.

Along the stream there are patches of Himalayan balsam.
