SITUATION

The land is situated about 1 mile west of Spreyton and 4 miles north of the A30 at Whiddon Down in Mid Devon. The land is located within a quiet rural area, popular amongst farmers, smallholders and those who keep horses. Spreyton is a small village with a convenience shop, village hall, cricket pitch and pub. The market town of Okehampton (7.5 miles west) offers a wider range of services and amenities and also has quick access to the A30 which connects Cornwall in the west to Exeter in the east.

The land is located only 4.5 miles from Dartmoor National Park which offers vast, unspoiled landscapes perfect for walking, riding, and outdoor pursuits. The area is rich in wildlife, with scenic trails leading through woodlands, rivers, and tors.

DESCRIPTION

The land extends to about 15.7 acres which comprises about 10.2 acres of pasture and 5.4 acres of mature woodland and young plantation.

The pasture is separated into 3 enclosures and is predominately gently sloping. Boundaries to each field are mature hedges or tree lines to the woodland. There is road frontage to the north east and the land is secured by a gated entrance from either of two points.

The woodland is separated into a number of stands of various ages and tree species are mostly deciduous native and semi-native. There is also a wildlife pond within the woodland which is spring fed and a stream to the southern boundary of the land.

The land, woodland and hedges have been managed to provide a rich haven for wildlife in recent years and the pasture cut annually for a grass crop.
