Description

This attractive end terrace cottage is conveniently positioned for the town centre and has a modern style with characterful features.

The property opens via a step down into a hallway with stairs to the first floor and a door into the sitting room with space to hang coats too. The sitting room is a bright and cosy room with space for sofas and a coffee table and leads through to the dining kitchen to the rear. The kitchen comprises of a range of wall and base units with a work surface over having a tiled splashback and a single sink with drainer. There is a four ring electric hob with an extractor hood over and spaces for an under counter fridge and a washing machine. The dining area has space for a four person table and chairs and further storage is provided by an under stairs cupboard.

The first floor landing leads to the two bedrooms and the shower room. Bedroom one is an excellent bright double with an exposed beam and a built in over stairs wardrobe and bedroom two is a great single or small double but could also be used as a study. Bedroom two also has a loft hatch with a drop down ladder to the boarded loft which has lighting and power and provides extra storage. The shower room has a contemporary style with a step in shower enclosure having a sliding screen door and there is a push flush W.C and a pedestal mounted washbasin plus a Velux window providing natural light.

Outside

There are two allocated tarmac parking spaces for number 7, just next to the property within the car park for The Old Pickle House development.

Location

Bedale is a market town and civil parish in the district of Hambleton, North Yorkshire. Listed in the Domesday Book as part of Catterick wapentake, markets have been held in the town since 1251 and the regular Tuesday market still takes place today. The town has a range of schooling opportunities for children up to the age of 16 years and also boasts a leisure centre with a swimming pool and gym, a football club, golf club and being the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales, there are plenty of scenic walks and country pursuits close by too. Bedale has excellent road links including the new bypass, and Junction 51 of the A1M provides access to the national motorway network. Other transport links close by are the main line railway station in Northallerton, Durham Tees Valley and Leeds Bradford airports are both within an hour's drive away.
