Description

This spacious bungalow is perfect for those looking to put their own stamp on a home. Located in a quiet cul de sac, the property is ideal for Bedale, Northallerton or junctions 50 and 51 of the A1(M).

The bungalow opens into a central hallway which leads to the kitchen, the bedrooms and bathroom, with a built in coat cupboard providing storage. The kitchen comprises of a range of wall and base units with a work surface over having tiled splashback and a one and a half bowl sink. There are built in appliances including a fridge, freezer, an electric oven with a microwave over and a four ring electric hob with a stainless steel splashback and an extractor hood over. There is also a useful pantry cupboard and a door to the rear porch. The rear porch opens out to the garden and has a work surface with spaces under for a washing machine and dishwasher. Off the kitchen is also the 'l' shaped living room which has a door out to the garden and space for a dining table and chairs plus sofas and an electric fire provides a cosy feel.

Bedroom one is a good double bedroom with a bank of built in wardrobes and bedroom two is a smaller double, perfect for guests. Bedroom 3 is an excellent double that has been used as a snug and also, via French Doors, leads through to a spacious conservatory, again opening out to the garden. The bathroom is an excellent size and includes a tiled bath with an electric shower over and a folding screen, a pedestal mounted wash basin and a low level W.C plus a built in cupboard for yet more storage.

Outside

There is an attractive lawned frontage having some inset shrubs with a walled boundary and a hard standing driveway provides off street parking to the side leading to the garage. The garage has an up and over door, lighting and power points.

There is gated access to the rear garden from the driveway, which is mainly lawned with a paved seating area ideal for entertaining with a pleasant outlook over the fields beyond. There are a range of inset shrubs, a garden shed and all enclosed by hedged and walled boundaries.

Location

Leeming lies a mile east of the current A1M road, south of the larger village of Leeming Bar and north of the small hamlet of Londonderry, also nearby is the RAF base of RAF Leeming. Leeming is also situated approximately 3 miles east from Bedale, which is a market town and civil parish in the district of Hambleton, North Yorkshire. Listed in the Domesday Book as part of Catterick wapentake, markets have been held in the town since 1251 and the regular Tuesday market still takes place today. The town has a range of schooling opportunities for children up to the age of 16 years and also boasts a leisure centre with a swimming pool and gym, a football club, golf club and being the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales, there are plenty of scenic walks and country pursuits close by too. Bedale has excellent road links including the new bypass, and Junction 51 of the A1M provides access to the national motorway network. Other transport links close by are the main line railway station in Northallerton, Teesside International Airport and Leeds Bradford airport are both within an hour's drive away.
